EF ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIPS

Professional development is vital to a successful teaching career. There's no better way to hone your teaching craft than by traveling to where the language is natively spoken to attend special workshops, learn up-to-date techniques and network with educators from around the planet.

In order to continue supporting the development of language teachers around the world EF will grant 3 scholarships to be used for an EF Teacher Training Course Abroad in 2015.

INCLUDED IN THE SCHOLARSHIP

The selection of scholarship candidates will be based on the description (text, photos, video, etc.) of a travel-related project led by the applicant and their students. Topics can include trips taken, volunteer activities, partnerships with a foreign class, etc.
