

Audentes Fortuna Iuvat

HARAMBE | ENTREPRENEUR | ALLIANCE

YALE SCHOLAR

An MBA for Africa's Entrepreneurial Leaders

Full Tuition Plus Fees

Two Year MBA Program

Access to Harambe Mentors,
Grants, Angel and VC Funds and Corporate Internships

Mr. Naayo – Ghana, HEA '16
Harambe Yale Scholar '16

YALE SCHOLAR

An MBA for Africa's Entrepreneurial Leaders

The Yale Scholar Program is a full-tuition plus fees award for Africa's entrepreneurial leaders wishing to pursue a two year MBA at the Yale School of Management starting in September 2017.

Ms. Mulindi-King – Kenya, HEA '16
SOAS, University of London

YALE BENEFITS

- Full-tuition plus fees to attend the MBA program at the Yale School of Management, starting in September 2017

ALLIANCE BENEFITS

- Access to Harambeans, mentors, Angel & VC funds, pro bono legal services, fellowships and corporate internships
- Invitation to Harambe Bretton Woods Symposium and intimate sessions with influential private and public sector leaders around the world

Mr. Udotong – Nigeria, HEA '16
Princeton University

ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES

- Born in Africa and current passport holders of an African country
- Exhibited entrepreneurial leadership in their field of interest
- Two or more years of work experience
- Hold a bachelor's degree or its equivalent
- Candidates must arrange to have official university transcripts, letters of recommendation and standardized test scores arrive at Yale School of Management by the appropriate application deadline

APPLICATION & DEADLINES

- Candidates must apply and be admitted to both Harambe and Yale School of Management
- Candidates must complete online HEA Application by December 30, 2016
www.healliance.org/join
- Candidates must complete online Yale School of Management Application by January 10, 2017 admissions.som.yale.edu/apply/
- Scholarship recipient will receive notification by March 31, 2017

Harambe Entrepreneur Alliance is a platform for highly educated young African social, business and political entrepreneurs, attending leading universities in Africa, Asia, Europe and North America. Our mission is to capture, inform and engage Africa's global intellectual capital in the development of Africa.

Harambe Entrepreneur Alliance is a 501(c)(3) incorporated as a non-profit organization in the State of New Hampshire, USA.

For further information:
E-Mail: info@healliance.org
Website: www.healliance.org

